Interview

Mr. Rogers grew up in Toronto, Ontario. He attended De La Salle High School followed by four years at the University of Toronto. Mr. Rogers came to Weston after four years as a principal of York Memorial Collegiate. He has been with Weston for four years now, not including his years with Weston in the sixties, when he began his teaching career.

In his spare time, Mr. Rogers enjoys keeping physically fit by attending the University of Toronto Health Club. Other hobbies include dabbling in real estate and travelling. He has travelled all over the world and last summer he spent some time exploring the Orient.

After four years at Weston, Mr. Rogers has accomplished quite a few changes. When he first came to Weston, he was quite overwhelmed by the huge population. He felt that it hindered a lot of the great potential Weston had. From then on he set out on a plan to cut enrollment. The task was not simple but it was successful. Cutting enrollment has allowed the school to become more organized and has given Weston the personal touch that he felt was lacking. Mr. Rogers feels that by being more selective in allowing students into the school, Weston has become a more respected school of prestige.

When asked if he had any advice for the students of Weston, Mr. Rogers said that he believes that students can achieve whatever they desire as long as they believe in themselves and have the will to be successful. It is obvious that Mr. Rogers is a fine example of this belief.

Interview: Mrs. Bongard

Mrs. Bongard grew up in Sarina, Ontario. She attended Sarnia Collegiate Institute and Technical School, The University of Western Ontario, and The University of Toronto, Faculty of Education.

Mrs. Bongard has been at Weston for two years as a Vice-Principal. Prior to her years at Weston she was at Vaughan Road Collegiate for what she claims to be many years! Mrs. Bongard finds the atmosphere of Weston to be lively and exciting and enjoys all of the staff and students.

In her spare time, what little she has, Mrs. Bongard enjoys reading, travelling, and attending her son's swim meets. She also moonlights as a taxi driver for her children, which she claims "keep her out of trouble".

When asked if she had any advice for Weston students, Mrs. Bongard said to set goals for yourself and work very hard to achieve them, believe in yourself, enjoy life, and be the best you can be.

This is Mr. Gavaris' third year as a Vice Principal at Weston Collegiate. Prior to Weston, he was a Physical Health Education Consultant for the City of York Board of Education.

Mr. Gavaris enjoys Weston because, to him, it is much like being a part of a very large family. His idea of harmony would include the senior students acting as positive role models for the junior students.

To have an enjoyable high school experience he feels that it is in everyone's best interest to become involved as much as possible in all aspects of school life. And to senior graduating students he says, "Don't lose sight of what goals you set for yourself; if they are important enough to think about, then they are important enough to keep."

We have a new and vibrant addition to the staff body this year: Ms. Thor - Vice Principal - who is an achiever; a symbol of success.

This vivacious authoritarian has gained an Honour's Science Degree in Behaviour Psychology and a Bachelor of Education Degree, both at the University of Toronto.

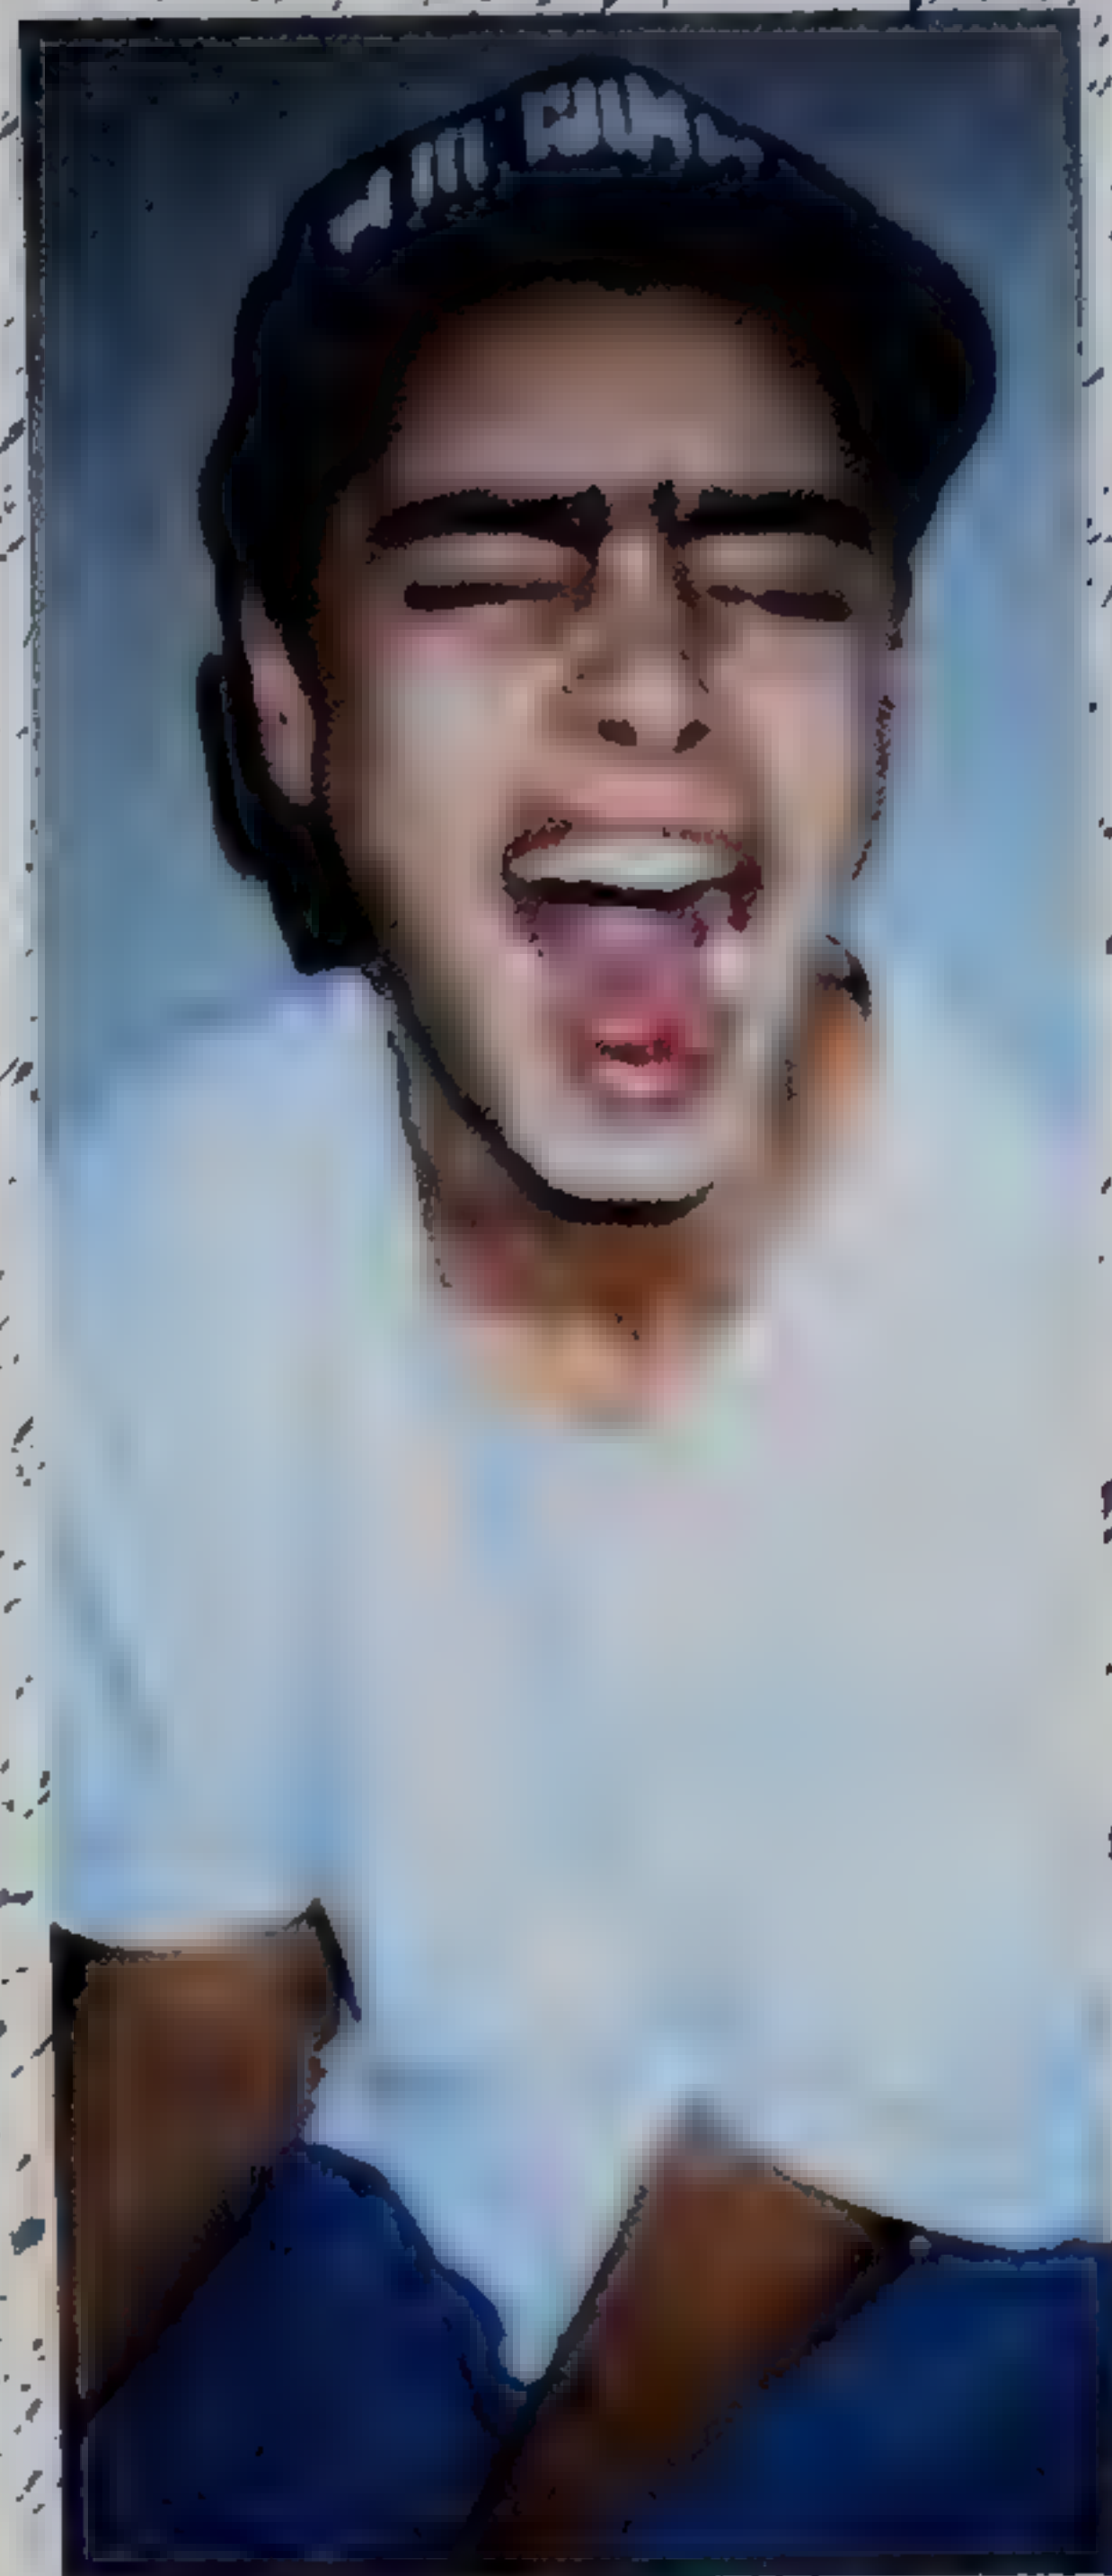

She is a former President of the Science Teachers Association of Ontario, as well as an author of a Biology textbook.

Ms. Thor seems to be enjoying her life at Weston. She says that Weston has a very welcoming, friendly, school atmosphere, with active students and supportive staff. However, she has a bit of difficulty remembering where all the room locations are!

Some words of advice Ms. Thor would like to share with Weston students are: to set realistic goals and pursue dreams because the world is filled with opportunities. Be confident in your own abilities and strengths, for "to taste success may take time; however, the sweet feeling is worth the perseverance."

FRIENDSHIPS

PRINCESS BALL

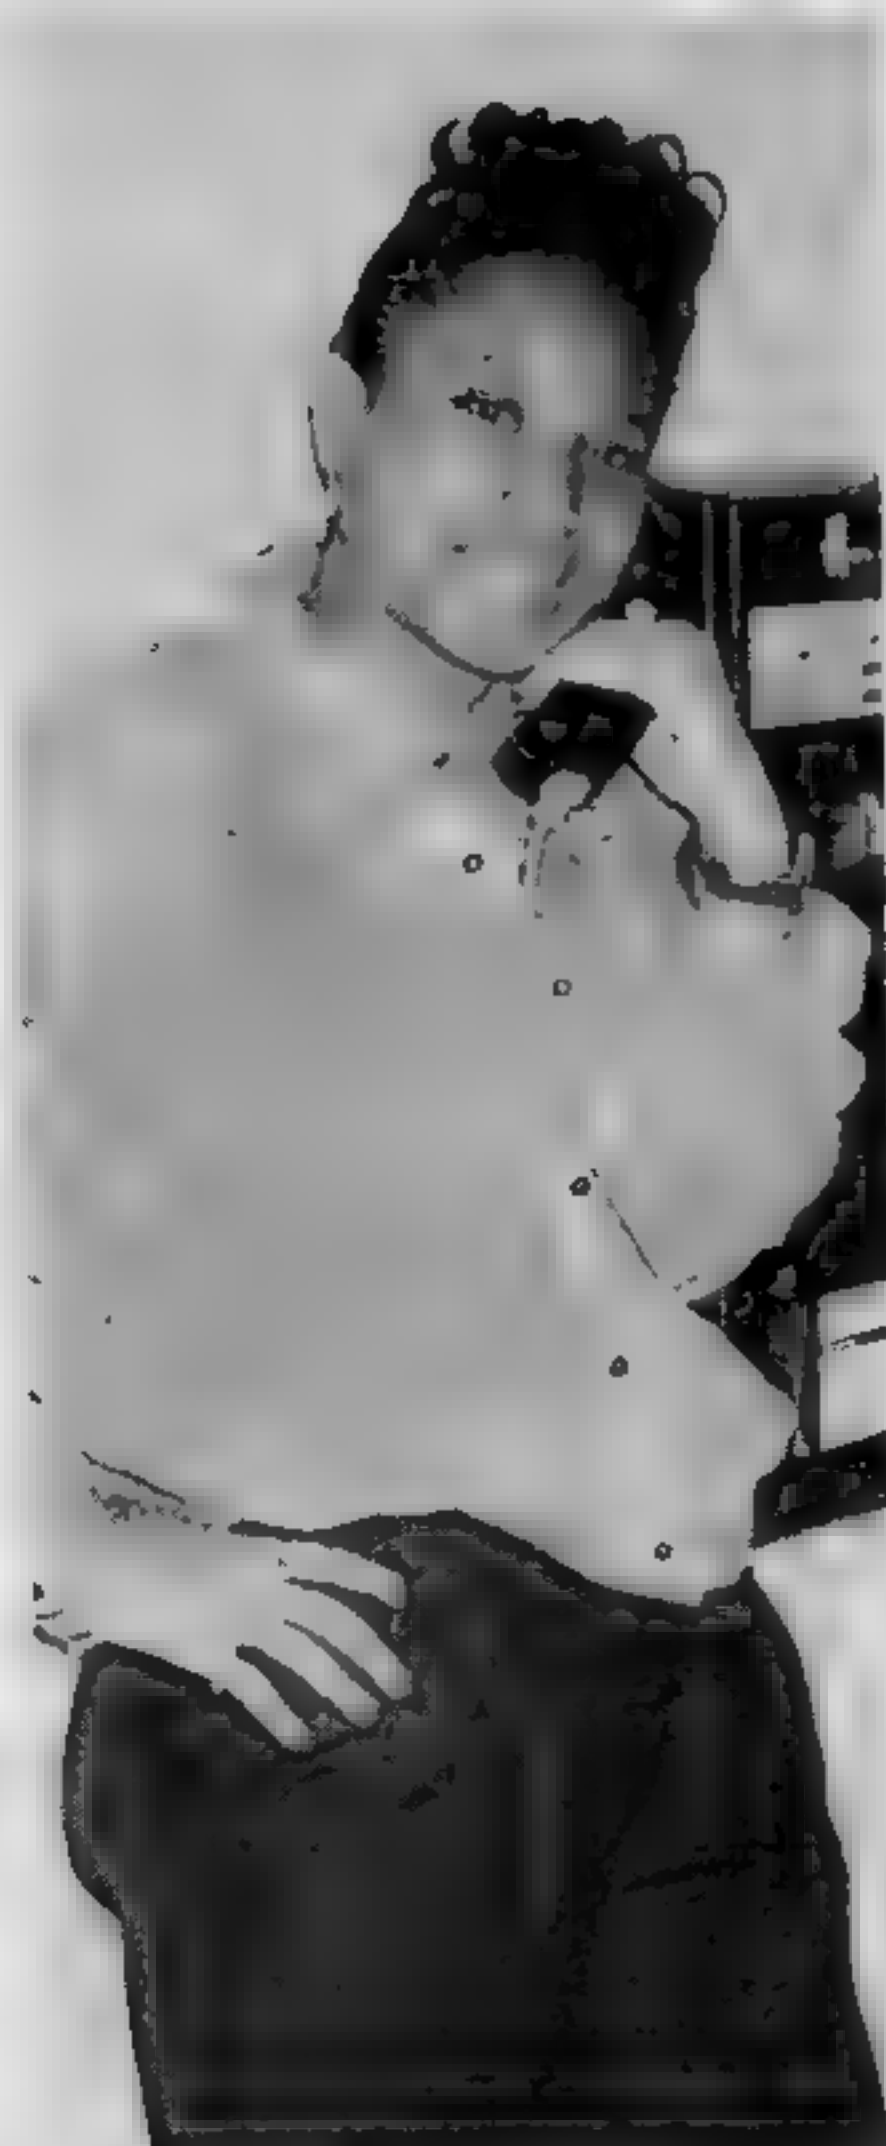

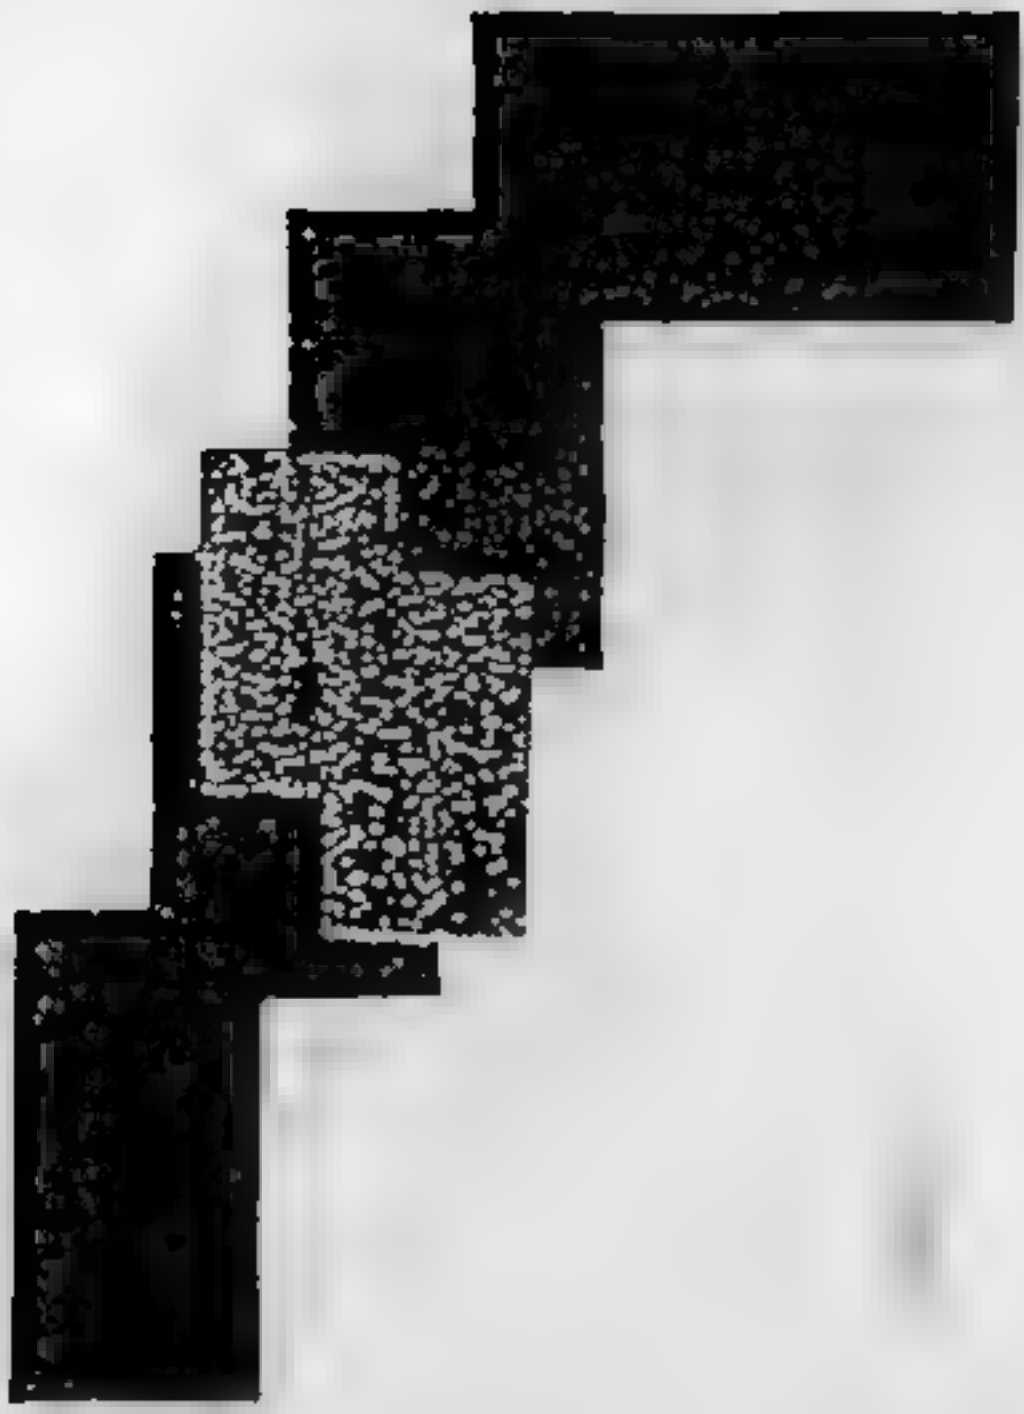

On Thursday, June 21, 1990, Weston Collegiate held its annual prom at the Hollywood Princess Convention Centre. It was a most appropriate setting as the theme was "The Princess Ball".

The event brought together many students, but for those leaving Weston, it was a special "last gathering".

The evening was filled with dancing, reminiscing about the year, and having a wonderful time. Heather Bressette and Craig Brasz were elected as Prom Queen and King.

EXPRESSIONS!

They say a picture is worth a thousand words, so instead of writing it out, we managed to get our photographers to capture the true meaning and essence of Weston's spirit; and it looks something like this . . .

MULTICULTURAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM PINE RIVER OCT 1-5, 1990

Once again this year, Weston C.I. participated in the Multicultural Leadership Program at Pine River.

The five hard working and co-operative students who attended the program were joined with similar students from the other schools throughout the City of York.

Taking part in a variety of activities, they learned how to work with, and understand, one another and seek out ways to make this a more friendly and peaceful world to live in.

All in all, it was an enjoyable and unforgettable trip for the students of Weston and the memorable experiences and friendships that were made will last a lifetime.

Exchange Student

This year, an exchange student from Switzerland visited Weston Collegiate. Claude Veya came to Canada in early August for a ten week stay. During his visit he lived with the family of David Munro, a fourth year student of Weston. This was most appropriate because of David's close affiliation with the Modern's Department.

Being from the Jura region of Switzerland, which is just east of the French border, Claude's first tongue is French. He has travelled all over Europe yet this was his first time in North America. It was also his first time riding on an airplane.

When asked if there were many differences between Weston Collegiate and his school in Switzerland, Claude nodded full-heartedly. He was very surprised by the many cultural groups here at Weston. He was also very impressed with the various facilities offered, especially the Olympic size swimming pool. The biggest difference, he claimed, was the newness of Weston Collegiate; after all, his school at home is four hundred years old!

World of Work

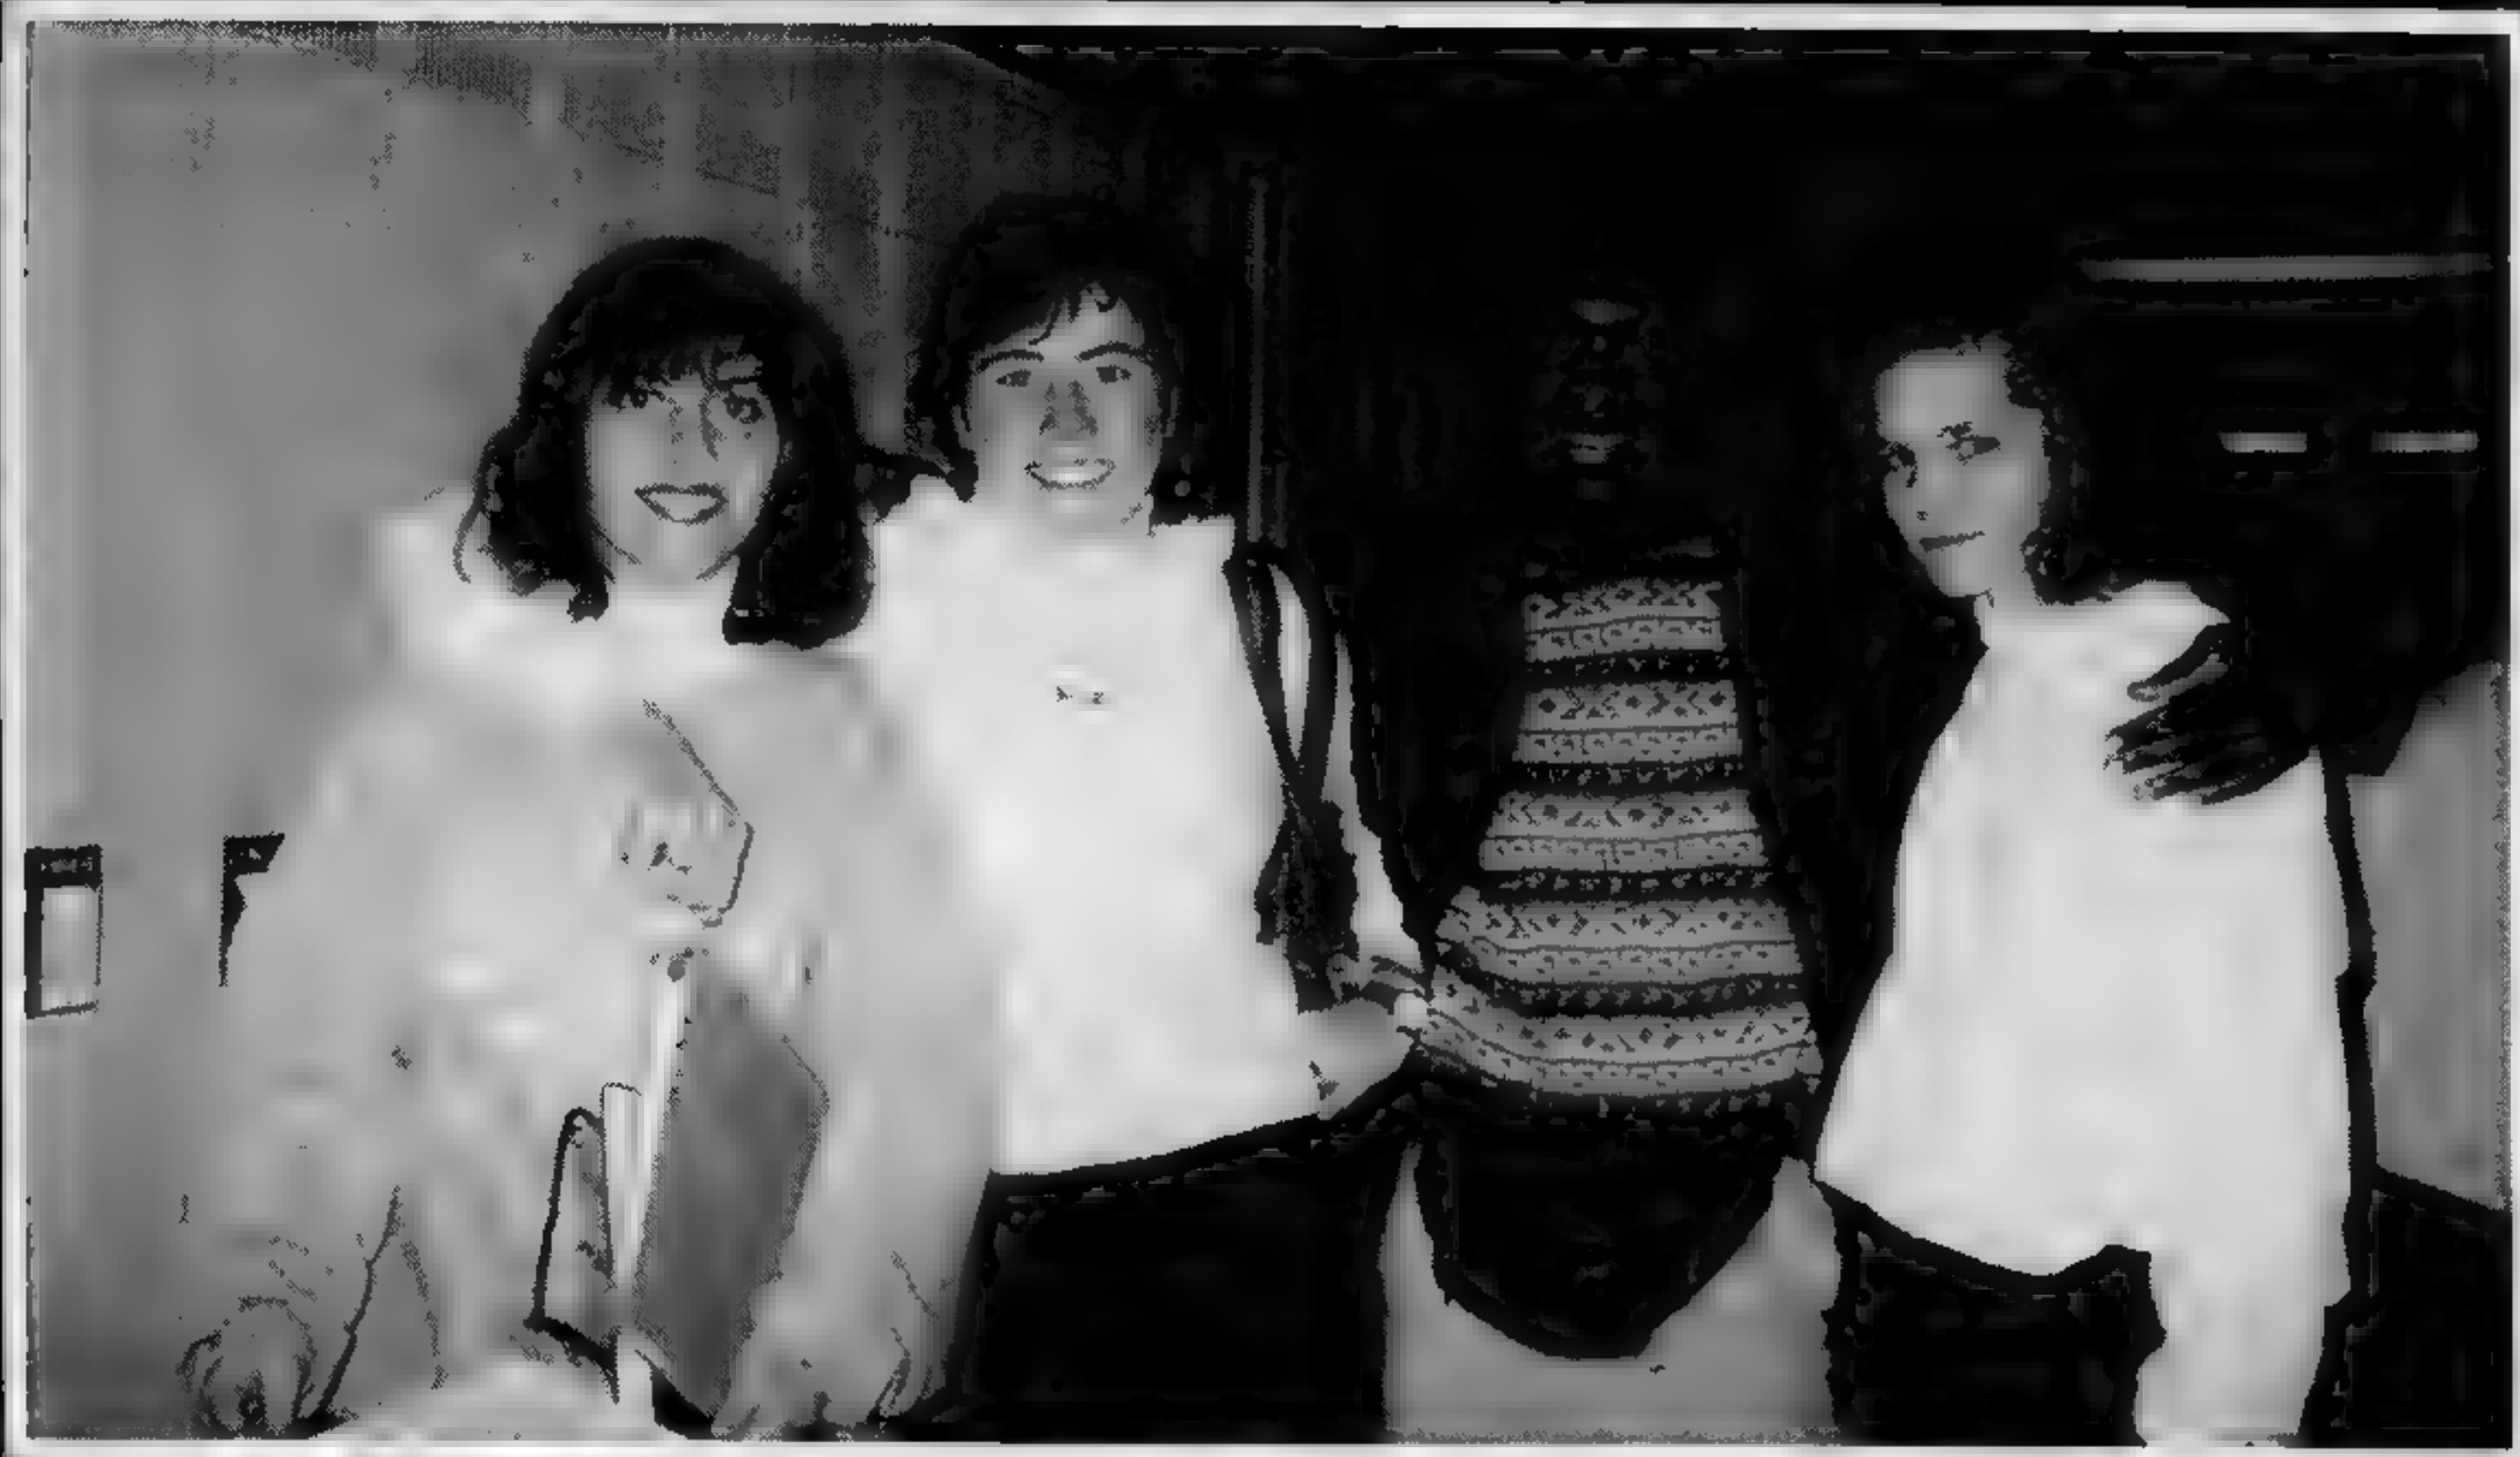

Ninety-seven students took part in four co-operative education programs this year. Spread across the city in a multitude of workplaces, these students shared a common benefit. The opportunity to experience a real working environment, while still in school, enabled these students to develop job skills and to formulate career goals. With interests that varied from accounting to architecture, drafting to design, social work to security and radio to real estate, all were able to participate and learn in a unique educational setting. Congratulations to all who took part.

Congratulations!

Graduation is both an end and a beginning.

It's a time for celebrating the achievements of years past and for looking forward to the challenges of tomorrow.

Face them with the same excitement you felt on your first day at school. Because the best is yet to come!

Congratulations to the graduating class, to those who follow and to all the teachers and staff.

CHRISTMAS DRIVE - TOYS FOR KIDS

Christmas came to Weston Collegiate Institute. The office wall bulged with the contributions of clothing, books, games, toys and "teddys" for forty-three children who live far below the poverty line. The students and staff poured out their hearts and contributed over $1,300.00 in toys, fruit and candy.

All the wonderful gifts were delivered by our special Santa's Mr. and Mrs. Brus-selers, Mr. Dawson and Mrs. Marlene Miller on Christmas Eve.

The spirit of Christmas truly visited the good people at Weston Collegiate and forty-three happy children.

After coming off a successful year by winning the 1990 Tri-City Championships, this season promised to be just as successful for Weston's Wrestling Team.

They worked very hard on the mats; proved to be very dedicated and showed respect for the sport. The team, although smaller, gelled, and proved to be a formidable force winning 5 of 7 medals at the Chinguacousy Novice Tournament and a few weeks later winning the Albert Campbell Tournament.

At the present time in League Competition the wrestling Ironmen boast a 12-0 record. If we, as a team, can continue to recruit a few more dedicated young athletes to round out our weight classes, the future will look very bright.

MATH LEAGUE

Math League contests took place after school in room 332. There were many students this year, and new members joined the club regularly. As a result, the Math Club had become one big, smart (and happy) family in the end.

The contest procedure was especially interesting. Contestants entered the room, wrote the contest for 30 minutes and received a chocolate bar at the end, no matter what they scored. Come to think of it, maybe it was the chocolates that brought out the mathematician in so many students.

To the upcoming crew: Please, if you can't get together once a week to talk about your culture and problems as an Afro-Canadian, at least remember what we discussed this past year and do something about it. But don't do it for the benefit of the club . . . do it for you.

EXCHANGE STUDENT

Samantha Meehan arrived in Weston in mid-January from Australia. She is one of thousands of Rotary Exchange students, sent all around the world to experience different cultures.

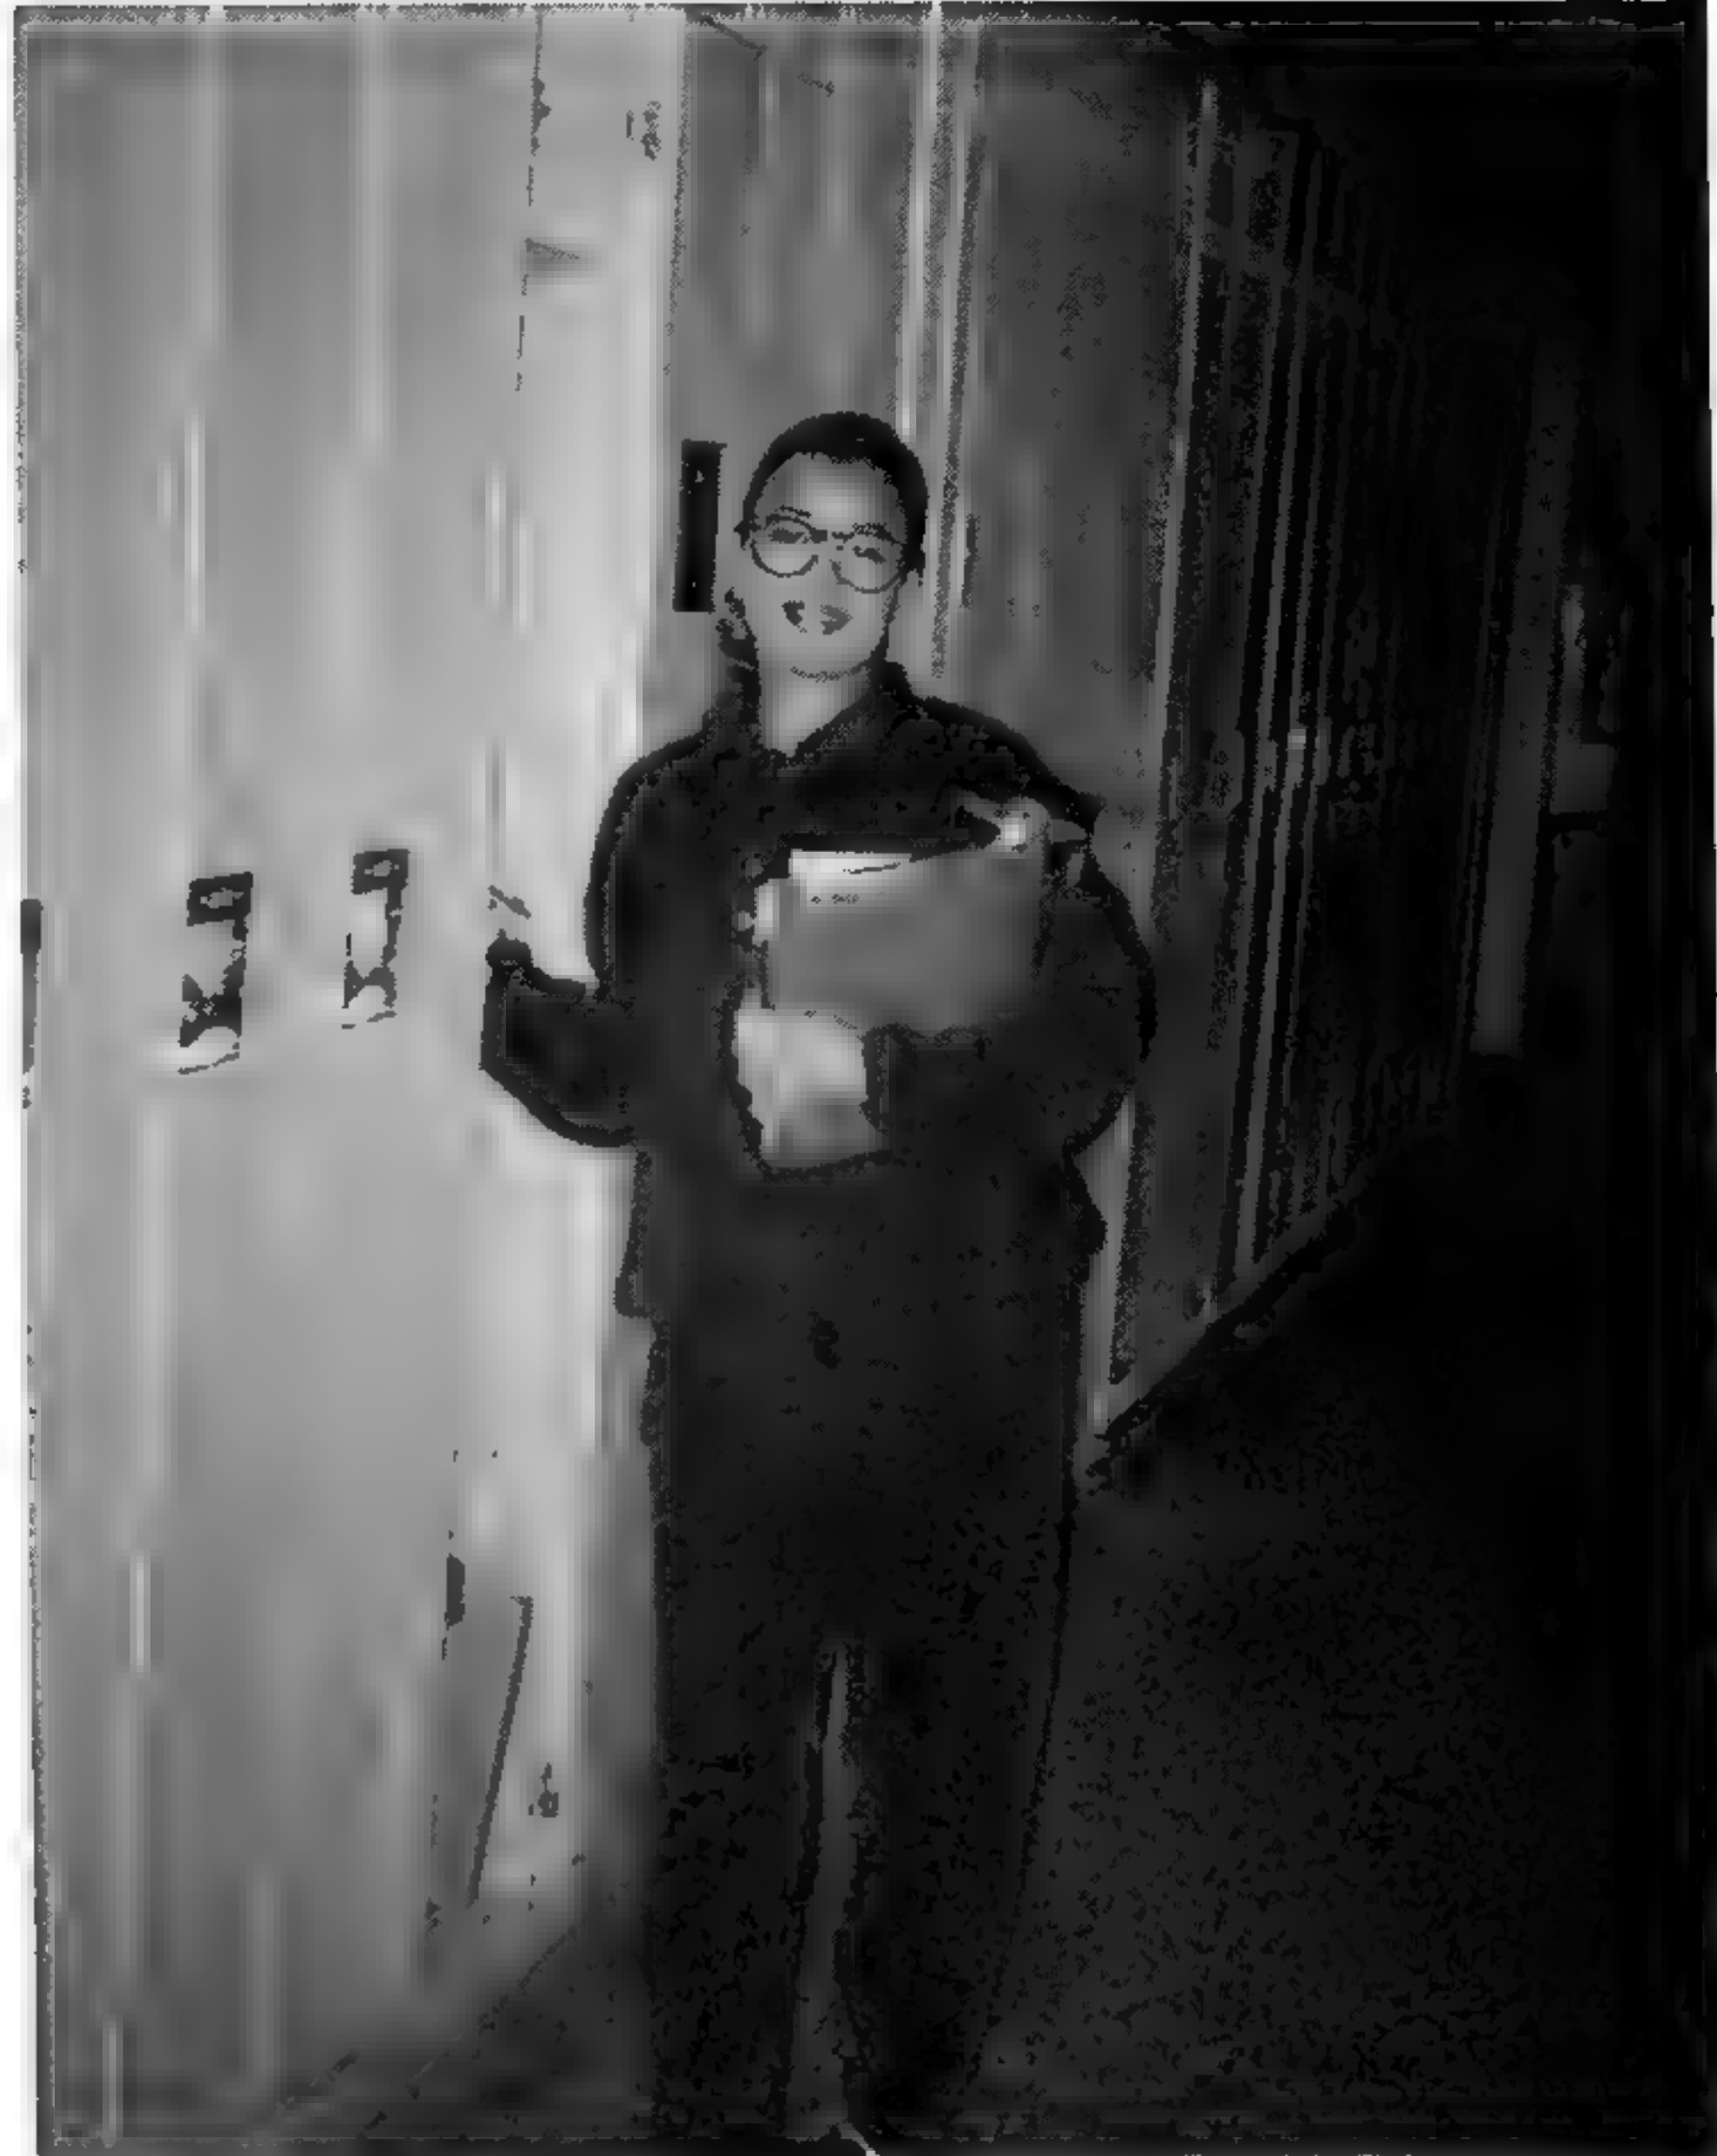

Besides attending Weston Collegiate, Samantha will be travelling to other clubs and schools to promote her homeland and make new friends with other students all across Ontario.

When asked about one main difference between teens in Australia and teens in Canada, she was quick to respond: "Canadian teens are given more responsibility in such things as having driving licences and going out on their own. In Australia, the legal age for driving is 18 and it is the norm for mom or dad to drive kids to and from parties."

We hope that your experience in Canada and at Weston was a great one, Samantha. We'll surely miss you!

From,
All your Friends At Weston Collegiate

STUDENT COUNCIL

This past year was an experience. I have firsthand knowledge of the pressures on the Student Council members. Although this year was a lot of work, I can honestly say that it was enjoyable, and many people helped to make this possible: The Student Council, who were friendly and co-operative; the Dance Committee, who volunteered their time to help out; (Thank you. You made my job much easier); and my close personal friends: Manuel, Jennifer, Ted, Nicole, and all others who supported me. I send a special thanks for your being there for me and making me feel important.

Also, Mrs. Dechaine who worked long and hard to help out in any way she could. A million thanks to her and her dedication.

Good luck to next year's Council, and to everyone: HAVE A GREAT SUMMER, YOU'LL NEED IT!

Susan Trotman

As I reflect upon my final year at Weston as its Campaign Chairperson, I can't help but feel good about the experience. I am proud to have been a member of such a fine and hard-working Executive who genuinely helped to rebuild spirit at our school. Thank you to all the Student Council for a fun year and a special thank you to Mrs. Dechaine for her support. This experience will stay with me forever and I hope I have made my own impression on the students and teachers of this school. I won't say goodbye; that sounds too final. Auf wieder sehen!

Louise A. James

I'm just going to make this short and sweet: I had the greatest year ever this year . . . But it was tough!

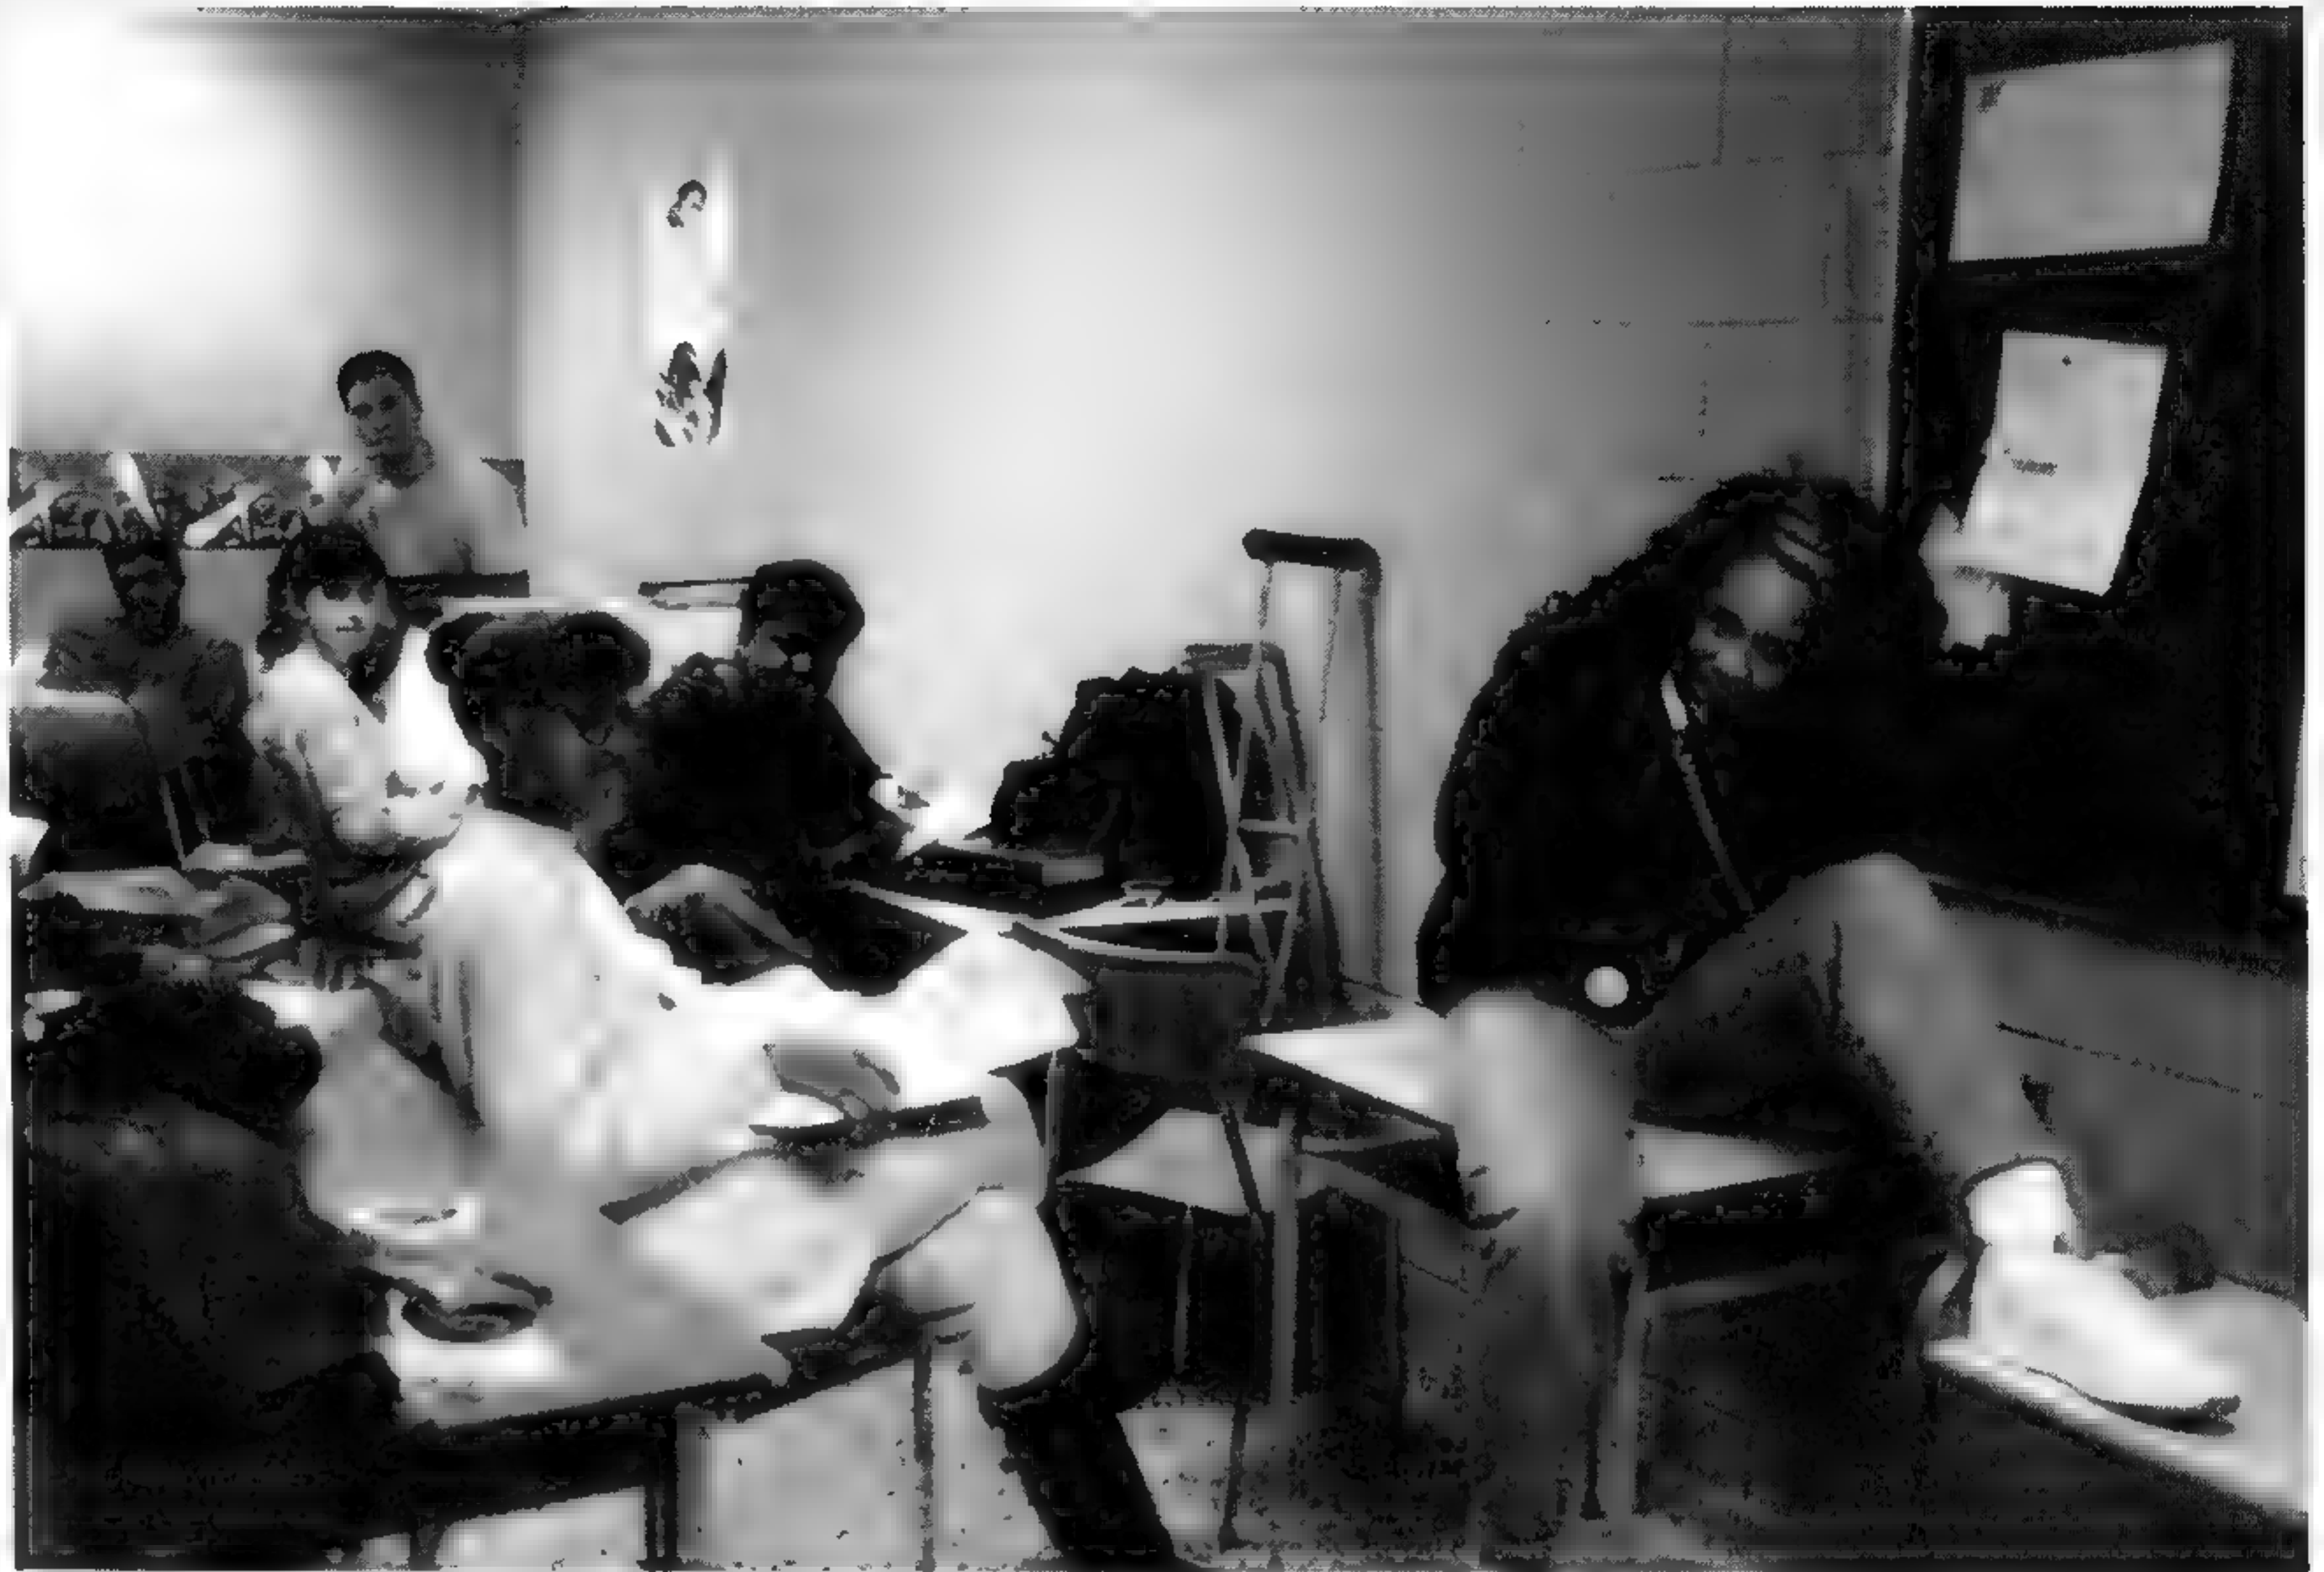

Thanks to all my friends & teachers; you people really made a difference in my life. And I think changed it in some ways too, in good ways.

To all Weston Students: Summer's here . . . Yahooo Party time . . . But . . . Stay

- A) Safe
- B) Sober
- C) Sweet

I love you all & I don't want anything to happen to not one of you. Peace

Raven 91

In the Student Council, I learned several very important lessons:

1. Having a sense of humour
2. Taking advantage of every opportunity
3. Sharing your responsibilities, ideas, concerns, and most of all, practical jokes.

Vincenzo Marino

TO DE BOOMES:

Seein' as this is mu last year at Weston and my first year on Student Council . . . well, it was interesting. I met new people, learned a lot (I think) and experienced what it's like to have so much to remember that your head hurts. Ya know what I mean? Good, anyway, I thought that leaving Weston would be easy but . . . with all the contacts I made, I think I might just miss this school. Howe'va', peace, love and happiness to all-a-ya'll I'm leavin' behin'. I'm outta here.
